

Barred Owl

Across

- The streaks running around a Barred Owl's neck is called this.
- The style of bird foot with two toes forward and two back.
- The length of time that it takes eggs to hatch.
- A storage digestive organ in some birds between the stomach and the throat.
- A mouse is one of these, Barred Owl's eat them.
- The stage when a young bird begins to fly.
- A regurgitated (barfed up) ball of undigested stuff.
- The owl's young are called this.
- A partly hollow hard stem fringed with fine strands growing out of a bird.

Down

- A Barred Owl has this colour of eyes.
- The latin name of the Barred Owl. (2 words)
- The circular pattern of feathers around an owl's face. (2 words)
- The outer ear.
- A Barred Owl belongs to this Family of owls. (2 words)
- These are eaten by Barred Owl's in the spring.
- Barred Owls like these areas, where they can find big trees.
- Resting on a branch is known as this.
- Where the eggs are laid.
- What Barred Owl's chicks come out of.
- The sound an owl makes.

