

Tiger Salamander

Across

1. Feces (poop).
3. Any animal without a spinal cord (i.e.: insects, worms, mollusks, sponges).
6. Chemicals used to kill animals considered to be pests.
9. Range of mountains in the eastern United States.
12. Rain or snow contaminated by industrial chemicals such as nitrogen and sulfur. (2 words)
13. An animal that kills other animals in order to eat.
14. Land-dwelling.
15. The length of time that it takes eggs to hatch.
16. A breeding group of a species.

Down

2. Camouflaged and difficult to see.
4. An ear that is visible. Also known as an auricle. (2 words)
5. An animal with moist, smooth skin that lays eggs without a hard shell (i.e.: frogs, toads, salamanders).
7. A climate zone of moderate temperatures - hardly ever as hot as the tropics or as cold as the polar regions. (2 words)
8. A structure produced by a male salamander for holding a ball of sperm.
10. An immature form of an animal that is significantly different from the adult form (ie: caterpillar, tadpole, grub).
11. External respiratory organs found in aquatic animals that absorb oxygen from the surrounding water.
14. When naturally occurring, this is a poisonous defensive secretion.

