

Wolf

Across

1. These are in the wolf family, but smaller.
3. A ground burrow large enough to crawl into, often with bits of prey littered about.
5. The number of different kinds of wolves in the world.
6. Canis domesticus.
7. Two different species that can mate and produce young.
10. A group of wolves is called this.
12. Although they usually eat meat, sometimes they nibble on these.
14. The basic biological classification of similar living organisms that can interbreed.
17. The average number of wolves in a pack.
18. The dominant male of the pack. (2 words)
20. The latin name for the Grey Wolf. (2 words)

Down

1. The common name used to describe the dog Family.
2. Wolves can go for days without doing this.
4. Many wolf pups are killed each year by vehicles on these.
8. Very dark, one of the colours of the wolf.
9. Alone, a wolf is about to hunt down these hopping mammals.
11. One of the food sources for wolves when they hunt in packs.
13. The part of a mammal's face that sticks out, with the nose and mouth on it.
15. An animal that is hunted or killed by another for food.
16. Feces (poop).
19. Wolf young are called this.

